

A Publication of the National Museum of Transportation Trolley Volunteers

SPECIAL EDITION

Restored Viewing Stand

November 2020

Photo Credits: Steve Binning

Members of The National Museum of Transportation Trolley Volunteer Group in addition to operating the Museum's Demonstration Streetcar Line occasionally work on other projects around the Museum. The reconstruction of the Viewing Stand is one of those projects.

Last week members of the Trolley Group completed the rebuilding of the visitors Viewing Stand that faces the Union Pacific tracks. The Trolley Volunteer Group members who worked on this project are: Bob Leight, Carl Horn and Bob Keeler. They were assisted by Carl Wessel and Steve Binning et el.

You can find additional photos taken during the reconstruction at kc1533.org.

TNMOTTV Member Steve Binning submitted this article.